NEW! OVERCOMING PERFORMANCE ANXIETY

The Keys to Giving Uninhibited and Truthful Performances

The techniques learned in Robin's unique workshop result in uninhibited, relaxed performances that keep artists focused, calm, and ultimately, anxiety-free. By eliminating anxiety, the music begins to flow, revealing the intent of the artist's creative expression.

Auditors who do not perform in class will also benefit and are encouraged to attend.

MUSIC THERAPY

As Celebrity Artist Spokesperson for the American Music Therapy Association (AMTA), Robin leads workshops in the transformative power of music. Sessions are conducted in hospitals, community centers, schools, and concert venues, and are geared toward those interested in learning more about the link between music and wellness.

PROGRAMS FOR YOUNG CHILDREN

Children ages 5-9 (Grades K-3) can sit on the stage with Robin, gathered around the piano for an interactive, fun, and informative program about music making. From the history of the piano to the mechanisms that make it work, Robin brings the instrument to life in a talk/demonstration filled with fun facts and compelling demonstrations. Students will put their imaginations to work by helping Robin compose a song at the end of the class. Q & A session caps the program.

WORKSHOPS/SEMINARS/MASTER CLASSES

Workshops focus on musical expression and are geared toward all students of band and orchestra. Included in this session is a brief performance by Robin, plus a seminar that covers the Artist's journey to her current music career as record label executive, publishing founder, concert artist,
